Save your Holiday Sales - Get a Sign Tune

Do your channel letters light up? Are they working for you? Today the sun sets at about 7PM, In a couple of months 4:45PM. If you run a retail business, and your signs are not up to the task, your holiday season will be negatively impacted. As the days get shorter, the Lead time on sign repair gets longer. If you need a Christmas tune up in December, it may be 2024 before the technicians can arrive. This is a revenue limiting problems.
